

Submission of Self-Declaration for Advance Income Tax Exemption

As per Inland Revenue Department, Sri Lankan resident account holders whose annual total assessable income is below LKR 1,800,000 are required to submit a Self-Declaration confirming their non-taxable income status in order to be exempt from being charged Advance Income Tax of 10% on profits earned from their LKR deposit accounts.

Please note:

- Declarations submitted previously (for 2025/26) are no longer valid and a fresh declaration is required.
- The new self-declaration is valid for the Year of Assessment 2026/2027 and for subsequent years of assessment unless your total assessable income changes to be above the taxable thresholds for which a revised self-declaration needs to be submitted
- Any AIT deducted prior to submitting the declaration will not be refunded or reversed.

Scan to Download the Self-Declaration Form:

How to Submit:

- Email the signed form from your registered email to ebankingcentre@amana.lk
- Contact your Relationship Manager for assistance
- Visit your account-holding branch

Important:

- Total assessable income should include all income sources (salary, business, investments, etc.)
- A valid TIN is required to submit the declaration
- Joint accounts: each account holder must submit separately
- Minor accounts: based on assessable income of the minor, parent/guardian may submit using their NIC and TIN,

For further details, please visit www.ird.gov.lk or contact your branch / call 011 775 6756.

It's Your Bank

Amāna Bank

