

GENERAL BUSINESS CONDITIONS FOR ACCOUNT HOLDERS

1. These terms and conditions shall be known as the 'General Business Conditions for Account Holders' of Amána Bank PLC and the same shall apply to all transactions of any Customer with Amána Bank PLC.

In these General Business Conditions,

- Words imputing the singular shall include the plural unless the context requires otherwise
 - Words imputing the masculine gender shall include the feminine gender unless the context requires otherwise
 - The word "The Bank" shall mean Amána Bank PLC and shall include its successors and assigns.
2. By opening an account with Amána Bank PLC ('the Bank') the Customer submits himself to these conditions, unless stipulations to the contrary have been made in writing and agreed to by the Bank.
 3. The Customer is obliged to supply the Bank with a specimen of the Customer's signature and with specimen signatures of the person(s) if any, authorised to bind the Customer vis-à-vis the Bank stating whether such power is general or limited and in the latter case exactly the extent of such limitation. If no limitations have been stated on the forms the Customer will be fully bound by any signature of which the specimen has been supplied to any amount and for any object, even if it appears that the authority of such persons has been particularly defined in Articles of Association or Regulations of Corporation or in general or limited Powers of Attorney or in any other documents. Modifications either as regards the persons qualified to bind the Customer or as regards the extent of their powers, will be only recognised by the Bank if notice thereof is given on aforementioned forms. The Bank is not responsible if damage or loss is incurred by the Customer through his negligence to furnish the specimens as mentioned in this article or by furnishing them incorrectly or incompletely.
 4. If an account is kept in the joint names of two or more persons, all that is done by one or more of them in connection with this account will bind them all and they will be all of them jointly and severally liable for the account unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.
 5. With the exception of securities, which have been handed to the Bank for special purposes (such as conversion, checking exchanging of scripts into definitive bonds or collection of dividends), all papers of value, such as for instance securities, bills of lading, warrants, bills of exchange and other commercial papers, belonging to the Customer which are in the custody of the Bank or which may come into its custody or which may be held by third parties on behalf of the Bank at the risk of the Customer, are considered to be under pledge to the Bank for all claims, including those not yet matured or contingent which the Bank may have against the Customer. Securities included in the above pledge, are unless otherwise arranged, taken up by the Bank in its general store of securities, with the right to have these securities re-pledged.
 6. In the event of the Customer not meeting his obligations towards the Bank in whatsoever respect, the Bank is besides and in addition to its right of execution, authorised to realize the whole or any part of the security at such a time and in such a manner as it considers proper, without giving any prior notice or without previously, issuing a summons, and to reimburse itself out of the proceeds for all sums due to the Bank up to the moment of settlement including expenses.
 7. In addition to any specific and/or general lien or other rights or remedies to which the Bank may be entitled and whether by operation of law otherwise, the Bank may at any time and without notice to the Customer combine and/or consolidate all or any account(s) and liabilities of the Customer and us or any one or more of us and set off or transfer any sum(s) standing to the credit of any such account(s) aforesaid in or towards satisfaction of any liabilities of any other such account(s) or in any other respect and whether such liabilities be actual or contingent, primary or collateral or several or joint.
 8. Credit entries are effected by the Bank with the proviso that if it has to receive any counter value from or on behalf of the Customer validating against those entries, same shall be received properly and in good time, in default whereof the Bank is entitled to reverse any credit entry fully or partly, without any notice whatsoever.
 9. Statements of account should be carefully examined and the Bank notified immediately of any error or omission. If errors in the statements are not pointed out in writing to the Bank within seven days of their receipt, the Customer shall not be entitled to question the statement which shall thereafter be deemed final and conclusive between the Bank and the Customer.

10. The following conditions will govern cheque drawings by the Customer on his account with the Bank.
 - a. The Customer shall keep the cheque book handed to him by the Bank in safe custody and in case of any loss or theft of the cheque book or any cheque leaves the Customer shall notify the Bank and shall provide the Bank with written confirmation thereof. If, prior to the receipt of such notification, the Bank has paid a cheque lost, stolen, unlawfully used, fraudulently altered or forged the Bank shall be entitled to debit the Customer's account with the amount paid.
 - b. The Customer must fill up any cheque the Customer issues in such manner that falsification is prevented as far as possible: the amount for which the cheque is used must therefore be written in figures and in words in such a way that any addition of figures or words will be impossible without immediate detection.
 - c. In the event of the Customer having no further use for his cheque book and in case the account is closed, he is obliged to return his cheque book to the Bank as soon as possible.
 - d. Cheque books will not be issued for Off-Shore Banking Units Customers. Withdrawals & fund Transfers from the account, will be made on personal requests only.
 - e. All Drafts / Cheques deposits to the Off-Shore Banking Unit accounts, to be handed over to the Off-Shore Banking Unit only.
11. The Customer shall immediately instruct the Bank in writing if cheques are lost/stolen or misplaced to stop payment giving the cheque number, date, amount and the payee's name. All such instructions will take effect only if the cheque/s concerned has/have not been paid up to the time of receipt of such instruction. Stop payment instructions given over the phone should be confirmed in writing within 48 hours of the relevant phone call. If such written instructions are not received within 48 hours, the Bank has the right to cancel the relevant stop payment instructions.
12. The Bank shall debit the Customer account(s) with all banker's charges, expenses of every description, fees, commissions, penalties, any profit mark up, return on investments, legal and any other charges as aforesaid whether taxable or not, occasioned by or incidental to all or any of the foregoing and charged by the Bank from time to time in accordance with the Bank's usual course of business and such other sums that the Bank may be called upon to meet such as taxes and/or charges or levies imposed upon the Bank at any time. In addition all expenses incurred by the Bank such as postage, stamps, telephone, and SWIFT charges will be charged to the Customer.
13. The Bank may at any time at its sole and unfettered discretion close any account without assigning any reason. However, the Bank will give the Customer 14 days notice of the closure of the account. The said notice shall be deemed to be sufficiently served on the Customer if forwarded to the Customer by post to the Customer's last known address. The Customer shall return on demand all unused cheques in the Customer's possession.
14. The Customer warrants that all information given to the Bank (whether in an account opening form or otherwise) are true and accurate to the best of the Customer's knowledge. The Customer undertakes to notify the Bank of any change in this information.
15. The Bank shall be notified immediately of any change in the Customer's address.
16. All deposits with the Bank are payable at their counters.
17. Amána Bank Current accounts will operate under the Quard (Loan) principles. The Customer shall not overdraw the Customer's account/s except by special arrangements made with the Bank. The Bank has the right to dishonour cheques if there are insufficient funds in the accounts, and charge for each cheque returned. The Bank may however at its sole discretion honour cheque/s and/or bills and/or promissory notes accepted or made by an authorised signatory of the Customer notwithstanding that the honouring of such cheques etc may cause such account to be over drawn or an overdraft arrangement to be exceeded. In such instances the Customer is obliged to repay the overdrawn amount together with all banker's charges, expenses of every description, fees, commissions, penalties, any profit mark up, return on investments, legal and any other charges as aforesaid whether taxable or not, occasioned by or incidental to all or any of the foregoing and charged by the Bank from time to time in accordance with the Bank's usual course of business and such other sums that the Bank may be called upon to meet such as taxes and/or charges or levies imposed upon the Bank at any time, on demand unconditionally, and the Bank has the right to recover such costs and charges as aforesaid from the Customer. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as an agreement either expressed or implied by the Bank, that the Bank is bound to grant an overdraft facility whatsoever.

18. Any and all amounts credited to the above account(s) while any overdraft or any other Banking facilities in connection with the current account shall firstly be applied to reduce any banker's charges, profit mark up and expenses of every description all in accordance with the Bank's usual course of business as may be fixed or charged by the Bank from time to time payable on the said overdraft or any other Banking facilities until such charges are paid in full. Only then shall any such amounts so credited be applied to reduce the principal amount of such overdraft or any other Banking facilities.
19. The Bank shall be entitled to charge penalties in accordance with normal Banking practice in the event that any sum or sums remains outstanding have fallen due and payable by the Customer. Provided that in such an event the value of the penalties shall be directly credited to the charity fund maintained by the Bank from which the Bank may set off its expenses and dispose of the balance to a charity approved by the Sharia Supervisory Council.
20. Notwithstanding the temporary advice issued by the cheque deposit boxes and automated teller machines (ATMs) the Bank will not under any circumstances or for any reason whatsoever, entertain any claims in respect of the cheque said to have been deposited into cheque deposit boxes or ATMs unless cheques so deposited have been credited to the Account of the Customer. Cheques credited to Customer Accounts are accepted for collection only, and proceeds will not be available for withdrawal until cleared by the Drawee Bank. Funds available date is shown for indicative purposes only.
21. The Bank does not recognize trusts.
22. The Customer hereby authorises the Bank to respond to enquiries received from other Banks concerning the Customer's account(s) without any further reference to the Customer.
23. The Customer acknowledges and accepts that the Bank offers products and services under Islamic Banking principles. Accordingly, by opening an account with the Bank the Customer shall be subject to such Banking principles as may be in force from time to time. The Sharia aspect of the terms and conditions upon which such products and services are obtained by the Customer shall be subject to the guidelines and decisions of the Bank's Sharia Supervisory Council.
24. The Bank is governed by all normal laws and regulations of Sri Lanka applicable to Banks, (including regulations and directives issued by Central Bank of Sri Lanka) whilst conforming to Sharia principles under the guidance of the Bank's Sharia Supervisory Council.
25. On any dispute concerning the Sharia aspect of the terms and conditions upon which the Bank offers any products and services to the Customer, the decisions of the Bank's Sharia Supervisory Council shall be final.
26. The Customer hereby acknowledges that the Bank is subject to Foreign Account and Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) of the United States of America (USA) which is an extra territorial legislation in nature, as a Foreign Financial Institution and recognizes that the Bank is obliged to comply with the rules and regulations of FATCA which involves reporting of the assets of US Persons and withholding of taxes and similar obligations. The Customer also acknowledges that the Bank may be subjected to other similar extra territorial legislation imposed by other foreign jurisdictions at any time in the future or from time to time. The Customer hereby authorises the Bank without further reference to report all information pertaining to the accounts and investments, opened and / or maintained and /or made / or closed by the Customer to the Internal Revenue Services of the US (US-IRS) or any other regulatory authority of the USA or any other jurisdictions, where a duty and /or obligation of reporting is imposed on the Bank to comply with the requirement for disclosure of such information. The Customer also hereby instructs the Bank to act further in accordance with any instructions issued by US- IRS or any other regulatory authority in any other jurisdiction as aforesaid, including but not limited to continued monitoring and reporting, withholding and remittance of any taxes, levies, penalties or other charges relating to Customer account to the US –IRS or any other regulatory authority in any other jurisdiction.
27. Even though the Customer may not be a 'US Person' within the definition of the FATCA or a citizen (national) of any other foreign jurisdiction at the time of opening of any account if the Customer subsequently become a 'US Person' or a citizen (national) of any other foreign jurisdiction as aforesaid the Customer hereby undertakes to inform forthwith the Bank of such change of status and the Bank shall be authorised from thereon to apply the foregoing conditions in Section 26 above and act accordingly. The Customer also hereby agrees that if the Customer fails to comply with this requirement or is found to be a recalcitrant Customer as per provisions of FATCA or any other foreign law (i.e. not cooperating with the Bank to fulfill its obligation) the Bank is entitled to designate the Customer as 'a recalcitrant Customer' and report as such and close any account of the Customer and terminate the relationship with or without further notice forthwith without any liability on its part for any losses, damages, expenses etc. that may accrue to the Customer by reasons of so doing.

28. These terms and conditions may be amended, added to, or replaced from time to time at the absolute discretion of the Bank and any such amendment; addition or replacement will be notified to the Customer by the Bank. Displaying such terms and conditions as amended, added to, or replaced in the banking hall of the Bank's head office and branch offices is deemed to be sufficient notification of such amendment, addition or replacement.
29. By continuing to operate the account or accounts at the Bank after such notification the Customer is deemed to agree to any such amendment, addition or replacement in the foregoing conditions made by the Bank unless the Customer has made the Customer's objections known within two weeks of the date of the notice of the amendment, addition or replacement of these terms and conditions.
30. The Customer confirms that this concurrence is granted with full knowledge and understanding and in terms of the provisions of Section 77 of the Banking Act of Sri Lanka number 30 of 1988 as amended.
31. Accounts that have not been operated for a considerable period will be transferred to a dormant or inoperative status. This measure is taken in the interest of both the depositor and the bank.
32. Savings Accounts and Current Accounts that remain inactive for 02 years and 01 year, respectively, or as determined by bank management, will be transferred to dormant status in the system.
33. Dormant accounts can be reactivated upon a written request. This request must include the reason for non-operation and be accompanied by proper identification.
34. As per the Banking Act, any account that shows no activity for a period of 10 years may be reported as "Abandoned Property."
35. Accounts deemed unproductive or inoperative may be closed after providing the customer with advance notice and a reasonable timeframe to respond and consent to the closure.
36. By maintaining an account with the Bank, you consent to the use of your contact information to enhance customer service and to receive communications regarding marketing materials, product or service details, and customer surveys.
37. You acknowledge that the Bank is obligated to comply with applicable regulations and report transactions that meet specified thresholds or are deemed relevant to the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) of the Central Bank of Sri Lanka, the Inland Revenue Department (IRD), or any other legally authorized entity, including the Credit Information Bureau of Sri Lanka (CRIB) in connection with credit facilities.
38. The Bank reserves the right to modify fees, commissions, charges, and rates from time to time. Updates will be prominently displayed on Digital channels at branches and can also be obtained through branch inquiries, the Contact Centre, or the Bank's corporate website.
39. If you have special needs or require specific assistance in accessing banking services or conducting transactions, you undertake to inform the Bank of the nature of such needs to ensure the necessary arrangements are made.
40. The Bank may utilize information system infrastructure managed by reputable third-party service providers, which could be located within or outside Sri Lanka. You acknowledge and agree that the Bank may share your data with these service providers for hosting and processing purposes, ensuring the effective delivery of banking services.
